

TWO NOTED SLUGGERS

A Looked-For Prize Fight That Did Not Take Place.

SULLIVAN AND STREEDER

Not Disposed to Thump Each Other for Mere Glory—Blood Only for Money—Disgusted Sports.

BUTTE, June 29.—Butte sports and admirers of prize fighting have been disappointed so often that those who went to Centerville this evening to see Bob Sullivan and Joe Streeder pound one another's mugs were not at all put out when the announcement was made that the pleasure of witnessing that highly edifying spectacle would be denied them. No kicks were heard and no complaints were made by the few men who had been holding down the rough plank seats for a couple of hours, waiting for the little pleasure to begin. In fact, they had expected something of the kind, for a genuine prize fight in Butte is about as much of a curiosity as a real prize fighter himself has got to be.

This is the way the crowd was disappointed. First of all, Streeder and Sullivan went to the owners of the amphitheatre and agreed to put up a fight for a proper sum. Sullivan went even further and contracted to put Streeder to sleep in 15 rounds, but of course for a stipend. The owners of the ring accepted his proposition and offered a purse of $150 to the winner and 75 per cent. of all the money taken at the gate in excess of that amount. This arrangement was satisfactory all around and the date was fixed at 6 o'clock this evening. This afternoon it was decided not to begin the thumping until 7 o'clock in order to secure a large crowd. Shortly before that hour a few men began to climb the hill on which the ring is located. Among them were Streeder, carrying a valise, and a gentleman known as "Broken Nose" Hennessy, the latter carrying a bucket containing a sponge and a bottle. When the crowd reached the enclosure, Streeder and Joe Black, his second, were found to be already on the ground. Besides these two, the owners of the ring and two or three other men were also there. A seige of waiting now ensued, the monotony of which was relieved by the entrance of a few more men and a few boys. Time flew, and as the ring was without illumination and as approaching darkness increased chances for a fight decreased. Capt. Sam Reynolds, one of the owners of the ring, held a short conference with Joe Black, then with Streeder, and then the latter conferred with a man with a black moustache. Soon a general conference between all interested parties ensued. Streeder was seen to pick up his valise. Hennessy took his bucket and Sullivan fished a small satchel from under a seat. The crowd took the hint and began to file out. A formal announcement was not issued; everybody saw no fight was to take place.

To the STANDARD reporter, Captain Reynolds said the crowd was not large enough to make the gate receipts come up to the amount of the purse or any near it. He said he had been disappointed. Sullivan and Streeder had assured him that they could dispose of 50 tickets and at $1.00 apiece, but instead had sold a single ticket. The bar receipts would amount to nothing and he and his partners did not care enough for prize fighting to do down into their pockets and produce $150 to see a couple of men thump one another. They would, however, give a purse of $100 to the pug to fight for, rather than disappoint the crowd. This offer had been declined.

The scrapper told a different tale. They said that Reynolds had offered them $5 and all the gate receipts, amounting to about $30. This proposition they had indignantly declined, because they were not $5 men and would not fight for any such measly amount. They were willing and anxious to fight, but as fighting was hard and painful they wanted pay for it, or at least a chance to win the day. This, they said, was the reason why they had picked up their grips and would not scrap. They also said that they were out of pocket for training and lying around for a week, under expense while waiting for the fight.

THE STRIKING PRISONERS.

Ryan Still Holds Out and is Getting Fat on Bread and Water.

BUTTE, June 29.—Ryan is the only one of the striking city prisoners who is still holding out and trying to break the record for existing on bread and water. His last remaining partner, Tom McAllister got so hungry this morning that he concluded even working on the street was preferable to sleeping on a stone floor and getting fat on a bread and water diet. He said he would work, and work hard, but the city would hear from him as soon as he was released. The fact is that McAllister entertains an intention no less serious than to sue the city for damages and to prosecute Judge McMurphy and the jailors for unlawful imprisonment. Ryan, whose frame has been reduced to the proportions of the running gear of a grasshopper, says he will hold out until he gets so weak that he can't walk, and then he will go to work and not before. He leaked out to-day that Ryan is trying to play a game on the court. In addition to the two charges for which he is now undergoing punishment another charge of jailbreaking hangs over him on which he expects to be arraigned in a day or two. Knowing that he will be bound over he thinks that as soon as examined on the latter charge he will be transferred to the county jail, where food is abundant and no work is required. In this he is mistaken, as Judge McMurphy does not intend to arraign him on the state charge until he has served out the two city sentences against him.

ANXIOUS TO ORGANIZE.

Philippine Workers Want a Workingmen's Union.

BUTTE, June 29.—Efforts are being made to organize a workingmen's union in Phillipsburg. A good many of the members of the workingmen's unions in Butte and Anaconda are now in Phillipsburg, and all are enthusiastic in the matter. M. Conroy, secretary of the Anaconda union, is now in Phillipsburg and has written the Butte Workingmen's union, asking that P. F. Boland or some other good organizer be sent to Phillipsburg on July 15 to organize the union.

Will Cross Butte With Bozeman.

BUTTE, June 29.—The Butte baseball club will play in Bozeman on July 4. It is hoped that the new club will be able to visit Bozeman in their new uniforms. One or two business men have responded splendidly, and if others will do their share the club will go to Bozeman in good shape. The club is disgusted with Helena, which seems to be very much afraid to play ball with Butte.

WALKERVILLE COUNCIL.

The Usual Number of Bills Ordered Paid—N. W. Ordinance.

BUTTE, June 29.—The Walkerville council met to-night, the mayor, Aldermen Brown, Sarah, Reimel and Holland being present. The finance committee recommended the payment of the following bills:

E. Olsen, work, $11.95.
George Lindsay, book base, $25.
James Bock & Co., goods, $14.50.
C. E. Fowler, dog tags, $3.
Standard Manufacturing company, stamps, $15.75.
A. W. McEwen, goods, $5.
City marshal, salary, $10.
City clerk, stamps, $2.
Dan Murphy, labor, $33.
Frank Hoyt, labor, $75.
J. Redding, labor, $18.
B. C. Oaten, labor, $10.
A. McIntyre, horse hire, $25.
Knobs & Co., printing, $23.93.
J. Annear, $22.37.
John Hildman, $3.
Mason & Odd Fellows rent of room, $29.

Susie A. Carter asked for a permit to build a frame house, which was granted. An ordinance was read relating to the grades of the city. This was the second reading. On motion of Alderman Brown, ordinance 26 was placed on the ordinance book. Dr. Phillips suggested the desirability of passing an ordinance making it compulsory to register birth, marriages and deaths; also that the ordinance containing a clause enabling the city to grant burial permits. The mayor asked the doctor to write up the heads of the ordinance and hand them to the city attorney to be drafted. Dr. Phillips willingly agreed to this. Ordinance No. 27 was read. It relates to the building of chimneys. Chimneys must be built on well secured brackets and project three feet above roof and five feet above a flat roof. The ordinance contains a clause imposing a fine of not more than $50 for neglecting to attend to proper erection of chimneys. On motion of Alderman Brown, the ordinance was placed on the ordinance book. Ordinance No. 28, granting a franchise to the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company for 20 years, was read. Alderman Brown moved the ordinance be referred back to the judiciary committee for amendment. Carried.

The chairman of the water committee asked for an extension of 10 days in which to prepare a report. The request was granted. The marsh was asked to look after those who had refused to pay dog taxes. Alderman Brown asked that some one be appointed to see that the report of the light committee be prepared for the next meeting. Alderman Holland was instructed to look after this. Alderman Holland said that something should be done about lighting the terminus of the street railway at Walkerville. An ordinance has been passed on this subject, and it was suggested that the city marshal see the city attorney about looking after the matter and if the manager still continues to ignore the ordinance have him arrested and fined for contempt. The garbage question was discussed at length. At the suggestion of Alderman Brown the council will ask for bids for the removal of garbage and a rate will be fixed for each family to pay for the work.

Alderman Brown moved that the city clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for the removal of accumulated garbage. Carried. Alderman Brown then said Mrs. Casey had complained to him that water was running down Daly street and into her cellar. The mayor said the water was running across onto his lots, and would not have affected her had it not been for the recent heavy rains. He thought nothing could be done until the streets were graded, when the water would be taken away by means of drains. Alderman Brown said he and the marshal had looked over the condition of the gulch and found the closets in good order. It was moved and seconded that the bill of Knobs & Co., amounting to $40, be transferred from the police fund to the general fund and paid. Carried. Adjourned.

AN ENTERTAINING LECTURE.

A Large Audience Greeted Rev. Bruce Simpson Last Night.

BUTTE, June 29.—One of the most cultured audiences ever seen in Butte was attracted to the South Idaho M. E. church this evening by the lecture of Rev. Bruce Simpson of Helena. The appreciation shown by the audience evinces the fact that lectures of a literary class are not lost in Butte by any means. The audience was not only of the intellectual class, but was very large. Many teachers were present. Rev. Galen Wood of the Christian church opened the service by prayer. Rev. Mr. Simpson's lecture was of about one hour in length, and showed a close familiarity with the literature of the world from the last century before Christ to the eleventh or twelfth century. The rise and progress of English literature was well presented. The subject was "The Arthur Legends and Their Influence on Modern Literature." One of the courses of lectures of the series, prepared by Professor Riley for the summer normal school. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Taylor of Deer Lodge. The lecture tomorrow evening at the same place should be largely attended.

Likes Jail Fodder.

BUTTE, June 29.—The excellent fare furnished and the fact that no work is required of prisoners, makes the county jail a decidedly popular resort with a number of men who inflict Butte with their presence, and they are never so happy as when guests of Sheriff Lloyd. John Doyle is one of the fellows who likes jail life. Saturday morning he was released from that retreat and immediately began to lay plans for his return. Sunday afternoon he saw an opportunity to steal a coat and vest from an East Park street "old cionander," and did so. To-day he was arrested and taken back to his old quarters. He will be arraigned before Judge McMurphy.

Not Fond of Mexico.

BUTTE, June 29.—Thomas J. Maguire returned to-day from Mexico, where he went as a mining superintendent of machinery for Fraser & Chalmers. Mr. Maguire is glad to be back in Butte, and says there is nothing like it. He thinks Mexico is a good enough place, but he did not like the job of learning the Mexican language. He says it is a good country for a young man who is not too fond of the English language.

News for Idle Miners.

BUTTE, June 29.—The Parrott mine is to open Wednesday, so it is reported, and this will give employment to about 90 and 100 men now in the camp idle. The new machinery is all in position and as soon as it has been well tested the work of sinking will progress.

A Little Shaken Up.

BUTTE, June 29.—The Inter Mountain delivery cart ran away this evening while coming in from Rocker. Johnny Bowen was thrown out, but not badly hurt. Tug Willard, who was driving, was also thrown out and struck on his shoulder, receiving a serious shaking up.

AFTER THE ALDERMEN

Many People Anxious to Converse With Members of the Council.

THE LAID-OUT WATER BOND

Eastern Millionaires May Soon Arrive in the City—The Gaynor Fire Alarm System—Does the City Want It?

BUTTE, June 29.—This has been an informal reception day among the aldermen of Butte, and there are very few of them that have not been honored with visits from one or more parties who have something done or left undone. The attorney for the Butte City Water company has been losing no time and it is known that he has visited several of the aldermen, although it is not known just what the conference has been about.

The talk around town is that the Butte City Water company wants more delay before the ordinance is finally revoked. In fact, a good guesser being given a pointer that there was something new in the water situation, would instantly guess that the Butte City Water company wanted more time, and he would generally be right in his guess.

It had been announced that Mr. J. A. Coram, Mr. Moffett and the rest of the millionaires were to be in Butte by July 1 and settle the whole thing up in a manner satisfactory to the city authorities. But word has now been received that Messrs. Coram et al. cannot find it convenient to favor Butte with a visit until July 5. It is understood that the work in the interest of the Butte City Water company is now being concentrated on delaying the council a week and obtaining a postponement of final action in revoking the franchise until Mr. Coram arrives. It is now claimed that Mr. Coram will make everything satisfactory; that he will be here on July 5, and that if the council will delay action only one week it will earn the lasting gratitude of the eastern millionaires. It is urged that Mr. Coram is not coming by freight and will, therefore, not be delayed so long as the famous pipe has been.

The judiciary committee of the city council will meet to-morrow afternoon and may have some recommendation to make. It should pass on the bond matter at once, in order that there may be no further dilly-dallying in the project of bringing good water into Butte. The plan for Wednesday night is to recommend deliberation and endeavor to have the ordinance revoking the franchise referred to the judiciary committee for consideration.

The Butte City Water company, in the face of the injury it has done the city of Butte, now claims that the city is not legally entitled to the $10,000 check, and cannot hold it, and that there will be lots of trouble if the attempt is made. The aldermen, however, argue that the city doesn't want $10,000—it wants water, good and abundant, and that $10,000 is a very slight compensation for the necessity of another winter of unwholesome water, of sickness and death, and of devastation on account of an insufficient supply for fire purposes. These, in this estimation of several of the aldermen, will be the results of the failure on the part of the foreign forces to fulfill its agreements. The foreign capitalists, the aldermen think, should surrender the $10,000, and rejoice that they are not sued for damages in addition.

The argument that is advanced by the company is that the bond has not really been rejected, and that in reality all requirements thus far have been fulfilled. It is claimed that there is no provision in the franchise that the bond shall be signed by local capitalists, and that the names of the Eastern capitalists fill all the conditions of the ordinance. Another matter that the aldermen have been interviewed on today is in regard to the Gaynor fire alarm system. Ray is anxious that the system shall now be accepted on the ground that it is running satisfactorily and has run satisfactorily since April. Last March, when the Gaynor fire alarm system was being thrown into the sewer, the Gaynor company offered to let the city have the system on trial another year, rent free, and without interest or cost, if it would permit it to remain in use, and at the end of the year the city could accept or reject it as it pleased. Three months of the year only have expired, but the company asks that the deal now be closed up. It is not known what the aldermen will do in regard to this. Some of them are of the opinion that the city has nothing to gain by such a transaction, although it would doubtless be a good thing for the company. They think that the system while working well now might not work well when the thermometer is below zero, as most of the trouble last winter was in cold weather. It is likely, therefore, that the city will hold the fire alarm company to its agreement, unless sufficient inducements are offered for closing the deal now.

Paid for His Lesson.

BUTTE, June 29.—At an early hour this morning, when most people were in bed, Ed Olsen was the victim of a decidedly scaly trick, and the loser of $25 in cold cash. Edward's story as related to a sympathetic policeman, was to the effect that one of the gaily decked sirens of East Galena street had inveigled him into her den and then under the guise of hospitality had robbed him of the amount mentioned. Before the susceptible unconscious himself he walked around for some time, and when the officer accompanied him to the place in which he claimed to have been robbed the house was locked up and the woman was gone. The woman (Olsen accused of having robbed him is "Sailor Jack," one of the most notorious characters of the Whitechapel district.

Will Find New Quarters.

BUTTE, June 29.—The Typographical union tonight removed its charter, banner, etc., from Miners' union hall where it has had its quarters for years. The union has not obtained other quarters but will probably have a hall in a few days. The union was ordered out of the hall in consequence of its action in refusing to turn out with the miners on Miners' union day.

"A Social Session."

BUTTE, June 29.—The sale of seats for "A Social Session" will open at Calkins' at 9 a. m. to-morrow. The engagement opens Thursday night and the sparkling comedy will doubtless attract large audiences.

Mickle vs. Fisher; July 16.

In department II. to-day Harry Williams pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny. He was remanded until July 9.

Bernard Conning pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery. For getting his name confused with the cognomen of another he will work hard for the state at Deer Lodge for two years and pay the costs of prosecution.

Theodore Smith and Fred Schroeder will appear before the bar of justice in this court on the 6th of July on a charge of burglary in the second degree.

The case of Harry Williams, charged with grand larceny, will be tried on July 8, and that of John Smith two days earlier.

The above cases completed the business of the court for the present, and an adjournment was made until July 8. A complaint was entered in the book of actions to-day against C. C. Gordon for assault. The case is an appeal from justice court.

Al T. refused to pay poll taxes and a complaint was also booked against him. An appeal from the justice court was recorded against Adam Faraday.

LEFT HIS FATHER.

A Young Italian Boy Leaves Home on Account of Cruel Treatment.

BUTTE, June 29.—To-night about 9 o'clock an Italian about 40 years old, living at Burlington, complained to Judge Muldoon that a party of Gypsies camped near the road house had stolen his son, a boy of 15, and were holding him for ransom money. The judge sent him to the sheriff's office, where he told a similar story. Deputy Sheriff Nichols accompanied the father to the camp, where the boy was found and a very different story was told. On June 13, the boy being severely whipped by the father, ran away. Last Wednesday he came to the camp of A. B. Brewers, a traveling horse trader, near Anaconda. He told Brewers that his name was Frank Anderson, and that his parents were dead. He also said he had no place to stay, and had frequently slept in hay stacks. Brewers, out of pity, he said, took the boy and brought him up here when they moved. Yesterday the boy's sister hearing where he was, went to see him. On learning that the boy had a home, and had deceived him, Brewers sent him away with his sister. He only went a short distance when he left the girl, and returned. The boy and Brewers were arrested and brought to the court house to-night at 12 o'clock.

Officer Nichols saw the boy's sister and she confirmed his story of the old man punishing him. The young fellow told his father that he would not go home, though he liked his mother and his sister; he would no longer suffer his father to tie his hands behind his back, remove his clothing and thump him unmercifully. A letter carrier was the first to inform Brewers of the fact that the boy's parents were not dead. When Brewers heard the boy trying to vainly to persuade the boy to go home, but he absolutely refused. Brewers put up a cash bond of $50 for his appearance at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. The kid was imprisoned.

A MISSOULA HARD-HITTER.

Abu Nixon Will Meet O'Farrell at an Early Date.

BUTTE, June 29.—Prospects for a first-class mill between two good men and that at an early date are very bright to-night. Abu Nixon, who has made all the local scrappers take water with out striking a blow, is trying to arrange a match with O'Farrell, who fought Allen at Salt Lake not long ago. O'Farrell is also known as Keefe, and at present is at Missoula going under the name of Lawrence Smith. O'Farrell is the man who a short time ago, knocked out Frank White at Missoula in three rounds, and has the reputation of being a good fighter. He weighs 22 pounds more than Nixon, but the latter is willing to waive the difference in weight, as he is anxious for a mill with some good man in order to show what he can do. Nixon wanted to fight O'Farrell next Thursday, but the latter telegraphed that evening that next Thursday would be too soon, and asked for a later date. Both men would like to fight at or near Butte, and it is probable that in case a meeting is arranged, the Centerville amphitheatre will be selected as the place of meeting.

Officers Elected.

BUTTE, June 29.—At a meeting of Dannon lodge, No. 1, K. of P., which was held to-night, the following officers were elected: John Row, P. C.; S. B. Smith, C. C.; Joseph Ethier, V. C.; E. J. Bonpus, P.; Adolph Shilling, M. of E.; Eastman M. of E.; George Lawrence, R. of R. and S.; E. S. Booth, M. of A.; Sam Flemming, I. G.; James Zana, O. G.; A. W. Yeoder, trustee.
